Unprecedented Rain-Storms.

MARQUETTE, Mich., June 11.—Reports from thirteen places up to seven o'clock last night showed that the storm of Friday night was general in scope and unprecedented in amount of rainfall.

The storm broke like the bursting of a water-spout, and continued for two hours, accompanied by heavy lightning. All the country from the Wisconsin to the upper range and the whole width of the peninsula suffered.

At and for fifty miles from Houghton the work of the deluge was most damaging. Baraga, Houghton, Calumet, Lake Linden, Escanaba, Lake Anse, Iron Mountain, Norway, Ishpeming, Marquette, and as far East as Seneey the storm was terrible. No approximation of damage is possible. Houses were undermined in some cases, swept away, culverts and bridges were destroyed, and miles of fences and sidewalks swept away.

Although several railroad culverts were destroyed no accidents occurred, but travel is generally delayed on all Pennsylvania roads.

Vain Search for Mr. Garrett's Body.

BALTIMORE, Md., June 10.—Chesapeake bay, in the vicinity of Seven-Foot Knoll, was crowded with yachts, pinnaces and tug-boats, all equipped with drags and hooks, their occupants being engaged in the search for Harry Garrett's body. The bay was dragged for miles around the scene of the collision, as was also the Magdoy river, and the shores were patrolled all day by people who had the big reward in mind, and by personal friends of Mr. Garrett from this city.

The United States man-of-war Ossipee, of the North Atlantic squadron, drew big guns throughout the day up and down the bay from the point where the accident occurred, in hope that the shocks might bring the body to the surface. But all this has availed nothing, and some of the searchers are losing hope.

There are experienced watermen who incline to the belief that the body will never be recovered, owing to the peculiar and swift undercurrent.

Mr. Garrett is bearing up bravely and well under the calamity and the terrible suspense as to her husband's body.

The gleam was raised this afternoon and towed to-night.

CONSIGNED TO THE GRAVE.

Obsequies of the Late Hon. A. T. Hill—A Large Funeral.

The services attending the funeral of the late Alexander T. Hill took place at the family residence on Sunday afternoon, and were of the most impressive character. The attendance was larger than that at any funeral held in this city in a long time, the house being crowded to its utmost capacity, while hundreds stood in the yard and on the sidewalks. The remains lay in one of the rooms, and were viewed by most of those who entered the house. The well-known features of the deceased were as natural as in life, and showed no signs of the wasting effects of long sickness, but seemed to convey the idea of healthful and natural sleep rather than death. Loving hands had spread a profusion of floral offerings upon the casket, many of them of great beauty, and as far as possible took from the surroundings everything of a sombre character. A select choir, Miss Berry, Miss Clara Eymann, Mr. Alexander and Mr. Montgomery, sang "Rock of Ages" and "Jesus, Lover of My Soul," at the opening of the exercises, after which prayer was offered by Rev. W. H. Prestley, Rev. Dr. Vosburgh then read a scripture lesson, and took for his text a passage from the 5th chapter of Job, "Thou shalt come to thy grave in a full age, like as a shock of corn cometh in its season." The clergyman announced that he should not devote much time to his text, appropriate as it was, but would confine his remarks chiefly to the lessons to be learned from the life and character of the deceased. He read a brief sketch of his life, prepared by a member of the family, and then spoke tenderly of the sturdy character, the high principles, the great success, the moral worth and the effect upon the community of such a life as that of Mr. Hill. He said the deceased was not a forger upon the community, but a benefactor, whose deeds showed their effects in every good word and worthy enterprise. The community was the better for his having lived in it. He held him up as an example for others to follow, and referred in tender terms to the Christian spirit which shone forth in his life.

The choir then sang the beautiful chant, "Abide with Me," and the services came to a close. The pall-bearers were Messrs. Geo. W. Bright, J. W. Rice, G. M. Wood, Edwin Park, J. A. Meriweather and J. M. Clokey. Among those in attendance were the county and town officers, nearly every member of the board of supervisors, representatives of the city government and the various banks, and a great host of citizens from every station in life, all of whom mourned the demise of Mr. Hill as that of a close friend. The remains were followed to Greenwood by nearly a hundred vehicles.

We are in receipt of the annual report of the Wichita (Kansas) Board of Trade for 1888. A. W. Oliver, formerly of Decatur, is re-elected president. Funds on hand $8,173. Senator John J. Ingalls, Senator Plumb and Hon. John G. Carlisle are the honorary members of the Board. Wilson M. Bering is one of the stockholders.

CHRISTIAN ENDORSER SOCIETY meeting at the Christian church to-night. F. W. Stafford, president of the city union, will conduct the exercises. The topic will be "The Christian Endorsers," and it will be the first of a series of ten union meetings to be held in the Decatur churches.

The police have taken in Henry Pfeiffer, of Duluth City, who claims to be a detective. He had sent $5 to Cincinnati friends who sent him a detective's badge. Henry is held for carrying a concealed weapon and he has his trial before Justice Stevens this evening.

The Vote.

The following is the vote in the counties thus far reported on supreme and circuit judge in the fourth district:

	Winn.	Vail.	Bunn.	Seat.

Macon	1842	1828
Vernon	2232	224	84	32
Champaign	2678	2341	202	70
Total	10872	8303	2333	238

The counties of Clark, Edgar and Macon are yet to hear from. Mr. Vail's majority over Mr. Bunn in Macon county is 404. His majority in the district will be about 19,000.

Police Raid.

Mary Bannister, Ella Miller and Anna Jefferys white women; Bettie Bristow, Mat Taylor and Lou Reed, black women; Lincoln Bristow, George Woodford, W. C. Jefferys and Sim Jackson, all darkeys, were arrested. This forenoon Justice Odor fined Mary Bannister Ella Miller, Bettie Bristow, Mat Taylor and Lou Reed $10 and costs each. All are in the calaboses. The remainder of the party will be tried this afternoon.

Appointed Supervisor.

This morning Hiram Johnson was appointed supervisor for Decatur township to succeed A. T. Hill, deceased. It was done under the law by Justices Curtis, Provost, Odor and Eymann and Town Clerk Williams, these officers comprising the board of supervisors. Mr. Johnson is a resident of Decatur and is a member of the real estate and insurance firm of Johnson & Knight. He is a Republican and a gentleman of good business qualifications who will take his seat in the county board when it meets to-morrow.

Blind Boone To-Night.

The opera house should be filled to-night to see and hear Blind Boone, the musical prodigy whose performances on the Chickering piano are truly wonderful. The party is now in the city. In making the tour of the country the company is everywhere greeted with liberal patronage and is freely admitted to churches in towns where there are no halls. Blind Boone comes with countless press testimonials.

BIRDS AND FLOWERS.

Children's Day in the Decatur Churches.

Each year one Sunday is set apart in the Protestant churches throughout the land and it is known as "Children's Day," a day on which special exercises are observed and when there is a lavish display of fragrant flowers in the audience rooms where regular services are held. Here the children assemble seated together with their parents, to hear the special sermons delivered by the pastors, to engage in the exercises by giving recitations and songs, and to view the flowers and the children were out in full force. The choir sang appropriate selections, the little folks joining in the choruses.

The usual collection was taken up to add to the fund set apart for the education of young men studying for the ministry.

A Cash Testimonial.

Saturday evening there was quite a large turnout of the Masonic fraternity Macon Lodge No. 8 at Masonic Temple, and after the lodge business was disposed of there was a love-fest of brotherly talk, which concluded with a crushing surprise to Rev. T. W. Pinkerton, the faithful secretary of the lodge. Judge Nelson was the spokesman for the Masons and at the conclusion of his somewhat mystifying address, he stepped to the desk of Secretary Pinkerton and presented him with $131 in gold as a testimonial of his efficient services and the high esteem in which he is held by the Masonic brethren. The handsome gift was entirely unexpected and it was some moments before Mr. Pinkerton could find words to express his acknowledgment. It was indeed a substantial token of regard.

There were 561 persons at the First M. E. Sunday school yesterday.
